PagePal® Interface

The PagePal® unit interfaces with most phone systems to virtually any public address audio system. In addition, PagePal furnishes inputs for background music and auxiliary inputs for microphones, radio receivers and recorded announcements. Control inputs are provided for tones generated by PagePal. This device is not recommended for talkback.

Features & Advantages

Analog
PagePal V-5335700

Simple Interface for Telephones
Turns your phone system into a public address system.